

The WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA CONSERVANCY presents

“Hometown Habitat Stories of Bringing Nature Home”

April 4, 2019 • 5:30 - 8:30 p.m.
800 Waterfront Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15222
(Washington's Landing)

Native Plants:

- Don't require the use of chemicals, such as herbicides and pesticides, to maintain their beauty
- Don't require extra watering
- Are preferred by our native pollinators for nectaring and birds for food

Join the Western Pennsylvania Conservancy for a free screening of “Hometown Habitat, Stories of Bringing Nature Home” on Thursday, April 4 at 5:30 p.m. This film will invoke inspiration and share how you can create a habitat for wildlife and bring natural beauty to your home and community. After the film screening, a panel of experts will answer questions and offer suggestions.

Seating is limited, so registration is required. To register, go to Eventbrite.com and search using the key words “Hometown Habitat” or use the QR code below with your smartphone or tablet.

Light refreshments will be served.
